

The 2024 Paris Session has concluded, marking a historic chapter in its annals with record-breaking achievements. This year's Session set new standards in terms of scale and impact, drawing unparalleled participation and engagement from around the world.

A record 4,575 delegates convened in Paris, contributing to a dynamic exchange of ideas and advancements. The Paris Session attracted a total of 11,215 participants, underscoring its vast reach and significance in fostering global dialogue.

This year's event also saw a record number of contributions, with 1,185 papers presented, each offering fresh insights across a wide range of disciplines. The diversity of the Paris Session was further highlighted by the representation of 99 countries, emphasizing the event's role as a truly international platform for collaboration and innovation.

The largest Technical Exhibition with more than 300 Exhibiting companies and 20 Sponsors.

As the 2024 Paris Session comes to a close, it leaves behind a legacy of unprecedented engagement and excellence, setting a new benchmark for future editions.

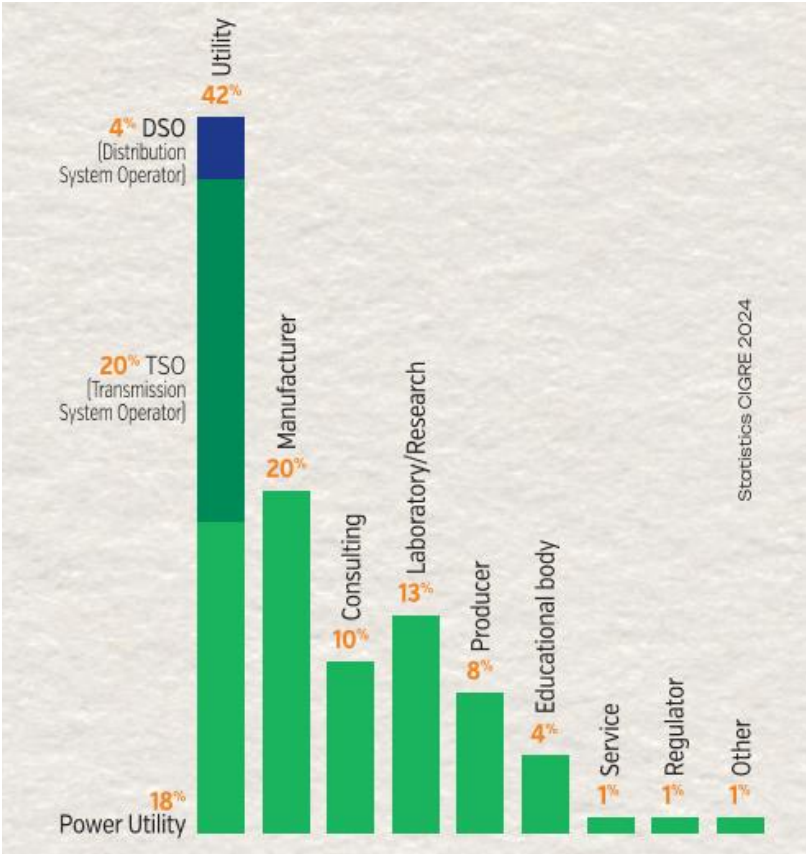

Looking forward to breaking new records at the 2026 Paris Session from 23 to 28 August!

+ 11 200 PARTICIPANTS - 99 COUNTRIES represented

- 41 % EU (France 8%)
 - 21 % Asia Pacific
 - 12 % Europe outside EU
 - 10 % North America
 - 4 % South America
 - 2 % Africa
 - 2 % Middle East
- (CIGRE 2024 statistics)

+ 4 500 DELEGATES

- 42 % Utility (4% DSO Distribution System Operator + 20% TSO Transmission System Operator + 18% Power Utility)
- 20 % Manufacturer
- 13 % Laboratory / Research
- 10 % Consulting
- 8 % Producer
- 4 % Educational Body
- 1 % Service
- 1 % Regulator
- 1 % Other
(CIGRE 2024 statistics)

High level experts, Decision makers, many CTO's, CEO's, Technology experts, Researchers, Chief specialists, power systems Consultants, Leading Engineering, Project Managers, General Managers...

+ 300 EXHIBITING COMPANIES > CLICK HERE

BECOME A CIGRE MEMBER

<https://join.cigre.org/join-cigre.html>

CIGRE offers members access to the world's foremost global community and its world leading knowledge programme, expert people and publications.

CLICK HERE

<https://youtu.be/TLzSqAqUooY>

